THE Indians are going to solve the Indian question themselves. They propose doing as the ducks did when fourteen of them were put in a pen without food. Thirteen of them ate one, twelve of them ate another, and so on until but one was left, which the owner found no difficulty in disposing of. To what extent they intend to carry out this plan we cannot decide, but they have already made a beginning. The Gros Ventres, Sioux, Cheyennes, Crows and Arapahoes have joined forces and intend to exterminate the Blackfeet. If, after this, they should conclude to wipe out Camanches, and then the Pi Utes, and so on, we might shortly have so few left that we could afford a hundred thousand dollars a head to finish the extermination.

THE old adage was most perfectly verified in the testimony of the physicians day before yesterday in regard to the Mansion House troubles. The testimony was as varied as was well possible, and although they all did agree that death had resulted, they could not be brought to vote unanimously on the cause. Some said the back, some the front, and some the side of the head, had received the mortal wound. If the man still breathed, and his life depended on the proper treatment being applied to the proper place, we fear that serious results might take place before the doctors would agree.

IN Wallingford, Conn., on Sunday morning last, a fire destroyed the Episcopal Church, Union Hall building, and Keelet's stove store. It is supposed to have originated from the furnace in the church, where a fire had been kindled for the first time this season. The whole loss is estimated at from $39,000 to $80,000, not, however, including the regalia of the Masons, whose Lodge was located in the upper story of Union Hall.

THE New York Tribune has at different times had twenty men connected with its editorial staff, who have since achieved celebrity in the literary world.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

—A St. Louis dispatch says: A private letter from one of the District Commanders in the South, states that since the recent elections at the North became widely known, the condition of affairs in his District has undergone a complete change. The late rebels are no longer disposed to accept the situation. They regard the elections in Pennsylvania and Ohio as an endorsement of the friends and sympathizers of the lost cause. These sentiments, the letter says, are not confined to the more ignorant classes of Southern whites, but the most intelligent and respectable. Late slave owners openly assert their belief that in a year or two slavery will be restored, or that the Government will compensate the late masters for their losses in this species of property. That this is no fanciful idea, the writer says, may be gathered from the fact that the late slaveholders all through his district are preparing lists of the slaves held by them at the breaking out of the rebellion, and are having them valued at current rates for 1860.

—Dispatches from Medicine Lodge Creek say that a treaty has been made with the Apaches, by which they confederate with the Kiowas and Camanches and go on the same reservation. They are to receive five thousand dollars per annum, clothing, &c. The Arrapahoes will make a separate treaty, and together with the Apaches dissolve their former connection with the Cheyennes on account of the hostile attitude of the latter to the whites. All the tribes here, except the Cheyennes, held a Council on the 26th, and agreed to renew friendly relations with each other and return the stolen horses. The Cheyennes have not arrived yet, and some suspect bad motives on their part, while others think all will come out right. They claimed they had not finished their medicine ceremonies yet, and asked longer time. The Commissioners had already waited thirteen days on this tribe, and had got tired. They were to remain till Monday, the 28th ult., and then leave if the Cheyennes had not arrived.

—The Treasury Department have endeavored unsuccessfully to obtain one of the recent counterfeit seven-thirty bonds, for the purpose of photographing. All the efforts at New York were fruitless, although many of the prominent bankers there, who hold large amounts, deny having any on hand now. All spurious bonds now in the hands of the Treasury officials are imperfect copies, the names having been punched out.

—John Ross and others have commenced action in the Supreme Court of New York against the Union Pacific Railroad, Eastern Division, for an alleged breach of contract, in which the amount of damages is laid at about five millions of dollars. A motion was made a day or two ago by defendants' counsel to have the action dismissed for want of jurisdiction. The motion, after a protracted argument, was denied.

—A large number of Southern politicians are to meet in Washington about the 15th of November to make a combined effort to obtain concessions from Congress for the relief of the South.

—Hunnefeut is reported to have told the negroes in Richmond, who had been discharged by their employees, to ask for work again, and if they refused, to apply the torch to their dwellings.

—The statement of the Commissioners of Immigration shows that during the year ending October 30th, 1867, 208,428 immigrants have arrived at New York.

—The car and carriage manufactory of Isaac Keith & Son, at West Sandwich, Mass., was totally destroyed by fire Wednesday night. Loss $18,000; insured for $12,000.

National Thanksgiving.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

In conformity with a recent custom, that may now be regarded as established on national consent and approval, I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby recommend to my fellow-citizens that Thursday, the 28th day of November next, be set apart and observed throughout the Republic as a day of national thanksgiving and praise to the Almighty Ruler of nations, with whom are dominion and fear, and who makes peace in His high places. Resting and refraining from secular labor on that day, let us reverently and devoutly give thanks to our Heavenly Father for the mercies and blessings with which He has crowned the now closing year; especially let us remember that He has covered our land through all its extent with greatly needed and very abundant harvests; that He has caused industry to prosper, not only in our fields, but also in our forests. He has permitted us to multiply ships upon our lakes and rivers and upon the high seas, and at the same time to extend our iron roads so far into the secluded places of the continent as to guarantee speedy overland intercourse between the two oceans. He has inclined our hearts to turn away from domestic contentions and commotions consequent upon a distracting and desolating civil war, and to walk more and more in the ancient ways of loyalty, conciliation, and brotherly love. He has blessed the peaceful efforts with which we have established new and important commercial treaties with foreign nations, while we have at the same time strengthened our national defences and greatly enlarged our national borders. While thus rendering the unanimous and heartfelt tribute of national praise and thanksgiving which is so justly due to Almighty God, let us not fail to implore Him that the Divine protection and care which we have hitherto so undeservedly and yet so constantly enjoyed, may be continued to our country and our people through all generations forever.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done in the city of Washington, the 16th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and of the independence of the United States the ninety-second. ANDREW JOHNSON.

By the President.
William H. Seward, Secretary of State.

ITALY.

PRUSSIA WILL NOT ALLOW FRANCE TO MAKE WAR.

LONDON, October 29.—The London Globe of this evening says, in an editorial article, that although Prussia is engaged to a neutral course of policy on the state of the Roman question, Count Bismarck, the Premier, has given an assurance to the Cabinet Conference that he will not allow France to make war on Italy on account of the Papal complications.

ITALIAN PRESS ON THE SITUATION.

FLORENCE, October 29—Morning.—The press is engaged in an anxious discussion of the national crisis and the policy of the Government.

The more moderate liberal journals express apprehensions of the action of the Cabinet towards the Garibaldians, and the observance of the September Convention. The Democratic papers are firm in their opposition to the course of the Executive, and loud in their condemnation of foreign intervention in Rome.

KING'S PROCLAMATION VAGUE.

There is much popular disaffection, produced mainly by the vagueness of the King's proclamation, from the fact that the royal manifesto contains no allusion or reference to the matter of French intervention and how it should be met. The army contingent of the royal troops, as classed in the year 1861, has been called out.

GARIBALDI REINFORCED FROM THE ROYAL ARMY.

PARIS, October 28.—Night.—The La Presse of this afternoon says that General Garibaldi's army is being reinforced by thousands of men who have deserted from the Royal army of Italy. He carried Monte Rotondo after a severe fight and marched direct for Rome. It is believed here that he is now at the very gates of the city.

CABINET CONDITIONS.

The La Patrie says that the Premier and members of the new Italian Cabinet accepted offices under two positive official conditions with Victor Emanuel. First, that the King shall publicly disavow all connivance with or in support of the Garibaldian bands who have crossed and are crossing the frontier into the Papal domain; and secondly, that by a military movement on the frontier the Italian army co-operate with the French expeditionary force.

GARIBALDI'S VICTORY CONFIRMED.

PARIS, October 29.—The news of Garibaldi's victory over the forces of the Pope at Monte Rotondo has been confirmed by telegraph. The General displayed great personal daring during the engagement, his soldiers capturing all the Pontifical force made up of Zouaves and gen-de-arms from Rome, but the Italian Government authorities at once released them.

NAPOLEON THINKS ITALIAN CO-OPERATION NOT NECESSARY.

La Liberte, of this city, says that the Emperor Napoleon refuses to permit the Italian army to co-operate with the French expeditionary force in the operations which may be undertaken in the Roman territory. In reply to the proposal of King Victor Emanuel in this direction, Napoleon said that Italian co-operation was unnecessary, as he intended to limit the sphere of French action to Civita Vecchia.

CONSCRIPTION FOR THE FRENCH NAVY.

TOULON, October 29.—The Imperial conscription for sailors for the French Navy has been resumed here and in the other maritime quarters and districts of France. The railroads are still engaged in bringing in troops from different points to augment the Italio-Roman expeditionary force.

REVOLUTIONISTS ACTIVE IN ROME.

ROME, Oct. 27.—Evening.—The Revolutionary Junta is exceedingly active in its operations to promote the advancement of the National cause by a popular movement inside the city, and a rising against the temporal power of the Pope is regarded as imminent. Great alarm exists, as a number of Orsini bombs have been exploded in the streets during last night and to-day.

THE COUNTERFEIT 7 30S.

Some of the detectives of the Treasury Department profess to have information leading to the conclusion that only about $150,000 of the counterfeit 7-30 notes were printed, and these were divided among three parties to be put into circulation.

WHITE HOUSE VISITORS.

The White House was thronged with visitors to-day, but very few secured interviews with the President.

MORE RETRENCHMENT.

Gen. Grant is about to issue an order reducing the clerical force of the Paymaster General's Office.

ORDNANCE COMMITTEE.

Gen. Logan did not arrive this morning, consequently there was no meeting of the Ordnance Committee here to-day.

WAR DEPARTMENT ORDER.

An order has been issued by the War Department, saying the practice which prevails of giving to soldiers, whose term of service is nearly out, furloughs for the remainder of that term, is found to be attended with serious detriment to the interests of the soldier, who is often deprived of arrears of pay for want of certificate of discharge. This practice will cease.

CLERKS DISMISSED.

Forty-nine clerks were to-day discharged from the Paymasters' Department, to take effect from Nov. 15th, and up to that time are allowed leave of absence. There is also a reduction of the number of clerks in the Quartermaster General's office and Treasury Department.

NEWSPAPER CHANGE.

W. D. Wallack has retired from the proprietorship of the Evening Star, having sold the establishment to Crosby Noyes, managing editor, and to several other gentlemen.

A CRISIS BETWEEN ITALY AND FRANCE.

PARIS, October 31—Night.—The semi-official Evening Journal states that the advance of the Italian troops into the Papal provinces was ordered by the Italian government without the consent of France, and this action, it is declared, has brought about a crisis in the relations between the two countries which is dangerous to the peace.

It is authoritatively stated that no treaty of alliance has been concluded between the Emperor Napoleon and Francis Joseph, but the entente cordiale, established between France and Austria, is complete.

Daring Robberies.

We published under the head of police items a notice of the arrest, on a charge of larceny, of William Stewart, who, it is supposed, was the perpetrator of a number of bold operations Wednesday afternoon. Stewart is a young man, and resides on Monterey street, Allegheny. It is alleged that he in some way obtained possession of a badge similar to that worn by the police, which he used to aid him in his operations. He selected Ohio avenue as a base of operations, and first entered the house of a Mr. Sutterdee, residing thereon. He had already effected an entrance into the house and was searching about the rooms when he was discovered. He stated that he was a police officer, and was in search of a man who had stabbed another, and who was supposed to have taken refuge in the house. With this "explanation" he was allowed to go out. He next entered the residence of a Mrs. Wilson, from which he carried off a valuable silver watch, and escaped without being detected. The residence of Capt. McCluskey, on the same avenue, was next visited. The front door was locked, but the thief passed to the rear of the house and effected an entrance through a window opening from a back parlor. The family of Capt. McC. were in the nursery in the back building, and the operator consequently met with no interference. He passed directly up stairs to the sleeping apartments of Mrs. McCluskey, and paid attention to the drawers of a dressing bureau, from one of which a valuable gold watch and chain, worth $160, belonging to Mrs. McC., were stolen, and from another some silver coins, belonging to the children, were taken. Over one hundred dollars in greenbacks, which were in one of the drawers, escaped the eye of the thief. After securing this booty the "operator" passed out of the house in the manner in which he had entered, as a person answering his description was seen standing at the gate leading into the yard.

As soon as the robbery was discovered, information was conveyed to the Allegheny Mayor's office, and Captain Bowden and officer Scott started in pursuit of the bogus policeman. They ascertained that Stewart had been seen during the afternoon with a gold watch and chain, answering the description of the one stolen, in his possession. With this clue the officers determined to arrest the suspected party, and succeeded in doing so at nine o'clock Wednesday evening as he was entering his own house. After being conveyed to the lock-up, Stewart was searched, and a pawn ticket for a watch and some eight dollars in money were found in his possession. He had a preliminary hearing before Mayor Morrison yesterday morning, during which the gentleman who had seen him near Capt. McCluskey's gate, as well as the one who had seen him with the gold watch and chain, fully identified him. Stewart was committed to jail for a further hearing Monday morning.

The watch stolen from Captain McCluskey is a very valuable one, and was a present to Mrs. McC. It was a hunting case, and the outside was chased and ornamented with scroll. The initials "K. McC." were also engraved on the outside, and the full name, Kate McCluskey, on the inside of the case. The officers thus far have failed to discover any traces of the watch, and it is supposed that it has been left with some person as security for money loaned. If such should be the case, the possessor can obtain the full amount by leaving the watch at the Allegheny Mayor's office.

The Presbytery of Monongahela met at Robinson's Run Church, on the 15th inst. A collection, in behalf of the Eighth Ward Mission, Pittsburgh, was ordered to be taken up in the congregations under the care of the Presbytery, on or before the first Sabbath of November. Rev. Dr. Gracey tendered to the Presbytery the pastoral charge of the Fourth Congregation, Pittsburgh, with the view of accepting an agency to complete the endowment of the Theological Seminary in Allegheny City. His resignation was laid on the table, and the constitutional steps in the case ordered. R. G. Young applied to be taken under the care of the Presbytery as a student of theology, and his application was referred to the Committee on Examination. The second volume of the New Version of Psalms was considered and disposed of. The overture in relation to creating a permanent Secretary of the Board of Home Missions, who shall devote his whole time to the work, was considered; and the vote was as follows: ayes 15, nays 7. Also, section 5, chapter iv., in the Directory of Worship, the overture on Instrumental Music, was considered, and the vote stood as follows: for retaining said section, ayes 7; against retaining it, nays 8; not voting, 4. It was resolved that any member of Presbytery, not present at this meeting, shall have the opportunity of recording his vote for or against the overture, any time between this and the time of the meeting of the next General Assembly. The next regular meeting of Presbytery is to be held in the Second Church, Pittsburgh, on the last Tuesday of December.

Soldiers' League and Library Association.

The Soldiers' League and Library Association, of Allegheny city, owing to the fact that the lease on the present Hall expires next spring and cannot be renewed, have secured Quincy Hall, located on Lacock street, between Federal and Balkam streets, in the First ward, Allegheny, and will take formal possession of it on Tuesday night. The hall is fifty-eight feet in width. The books and cases and furniture of the Library Association will be removed from the room now occupied to the new hall. The library cases will extend along the rear end of the hall a distance of twelve feet. At a meeting of the Managers of the Literary Association, on Tuesday evening, it was agreed to sub-let the hall to the Hawthorne Literary Society, Post No. 35 of the Grand Army of the Republic, and to the new military company started by J. C. Martin, for the holding of meetings. The Soldiers' League will hold their meetings in the hall every Tuesday evening. The Managers appointed a committee, consisting of Messrs. John S. Edgar, Joseph R. Oxley and A. C. Patterson, to procure subscriptions to the Association.

A Rare Chance to Make Money Rapidly.

It will be seen by referring to our want column to-day that Colonel Beazell offers to the public a valuable and popular patent, in which all classes are specially interested. We have examined it carefully—having a thorough knowledge of it—and can say without hesitancy that there is a fortune it for any one possessing a State, city or county right. After purchasing territory, there is a clear profit of one hundred dollars and sixty cents on every eleven dollars and forty cents expended for working material.

New Crossing.—A new crossing is being put down on St. Clair street at the South side of Penn. This is an improvement much needed, and there are several other points where crossings would not be objectionable.

The Mansion House Homicide—Verdict of the Jury.

The Coroner's jury impanneled to inquire into the manner and cause of the death of James A. Monaghan met at the Mayor's office, yesterday, pursuant to adjournment, and after deliberating for a considerable time it became evident that they could not agree, as four of them were firmly of the belief that the injury which caused his death was that supposed to have been inflicted after he was carried up stairs, while the remaining two were of a different opinion, and believed that death ensued from injuries received in the bar-room, as will appear by the verdict. They applied to Judge Stowe for advice in the matter, who decided that a verdict might be rendered expressing the views of both parties, after which they rendered the following:

That the jury are unable to agree, four of the said jurors being of the opinion that the said Monaghan came to his death from the effects of an injury sustained on the forehead, in some manner to them unknown; and that two of said jurors are of the opinion that the deceased came to his death from the effects of injuries sustained by a fall on the back of the head, said fall resulting from a blow of the fist administered by Lawrence Purcell. The said Monaghan was injured on the evening of the 21st of October, and died at the Mansion House, in the Tenth ward, Pittsburgh, on the morning of the 23d of October.

Police Items.

ILLEGAL LIQUOR SELLING.

Thomas Flaherty yesterday made information before Alderman Humbert, against George Green, charging him with selling liquor on Sunday, and to minors. The defendant keeps a saloon on Water street, and the prosecutor resides on Point street. Green was arrested and held for a hearing.

FALSE PRETENSE.

Patrick Kearns made information before Alderman McMasters, against a stranger calling himself "Judge Leslie," for false pretence. The "Judge" purports to hail from Illinois, and, as Patrick alleges, has obtained from him carriage hire to the amount of three dollars, which he refuses to pay. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

Anthony Smith yesterday appeared before Deputy Mayor Owston, and made information against James Donavan, T. Daily and Barney O'Donnell, charging them with assault and battery. The parties were arrested, and after a partial hearing committed to jail, where they will remain until the 6th inst., when they will have a further hearing.

LARCENY.

Henry M'Cluskey yesterday appeared before Mayor Morrison, of Allegheny, and made information against William Stewart for larceny. Stewart was arrested, and in default of bail committed to jail for a hearing, which will take place on Monday, the 4th inst.

Affray in Allegheny.

Alexander, Robert and David Crumrine, residents of the Second ward, Allegheny, it appears, were slightly intoxicated Wednesday evening, and became so boisterous that the police were obliged to arrest them. They were in McAllister's tavern, near the drove yard, acting in a disorderly manner. Officer South went in to see what was wrong, when he was immediately attacked by one of the party. Officer Woods happened to be near at hand, and hearing the difficulty, entered and at once went to the rescue of his brother officer. Notwithstanding the odds of three to two the officers came off victorious, not, however, without having received some injuries. The offenders were conveyed to the Mayor's office, where they left security for their appearance for a hearing.

Pittsburgh Postoffice Robbery.

Deputy Marshal Gillespie, of Pittsburgh, appeared before Justice Dowling, in New York, yesterday afternoon, with a requisition for the transfer of Wm. A. Thompson to the United S ates Court, on a charge of being one of a gang of burglars who broke into the Postoffice, in this city, on the night of the 27th inst., and stole a large quantity of letters, among them a check on the American National Bank for $1,218, drawn in favor of A. & D. H. Chambers. The Justice refused to hand over the prisoner to the United States until he was first tried on a charge of false impersonation, if an an indictment be found against him by the Grand Jury.

The Circus.

Col. Dan. Rice's great show is now exhibiting on the Red Lion lot, and will continue to do so afternoon and evening until Saturday, when the closing exhibition of the season will be given. The name of Dan Rice is sufficient at any time to fill a canvass any place in Pennsylvania, and his stay in Pittsburgh will doubtless be a profitable one. It is unnecessary for us to enumerate the attractions connected with the exhibition, almost any one of which are alone worth the price of admission, for any person who has ever heard of Dan Rice knows that he never humbugs the people. Col. Dan is stopping at the Grant House, Allegheny, where he will be glad to see his friends.

Mr. Mitsch is a practical working jeweler and watchmaker, and attends to the manufacturing of anything in his line at the shortest notice, or to repairing of any description. Watches are made and repaired in the best style of workmanship. We earnestly commend this house to the patronage of our readers.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1867.

THE PROSPECTS are favorable for a rise in the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers, and of course a good stage of water for boating purposes in the Ohio. There is an immense amount of coal awaiting shipment to river points below which will be run out on the first rise.

THE Republicans throughout the State are organising for the Presidential contest. They are determined to atone for the criminal negligence of the last canvass, and will secure Pennsylvania her honored place among the loyal Commonwealths of the Union in the approaching political struggle.

THE Democratic party of Ohio is in sore perplexity, not knowing how to dispose of Vallandigham's claims for Ben Wade's seat in the United States Senate. Nearly all the members elected by the Democrats to the State Legislature are pledged to their constituents to support Vallandigham, but the wise men of the party see utter ruin ahead if these pledges be redeemed.

WE LEARN that a number of the election districts in the county are about to follow in the wake of the Second Ward, and organize Republican Grant clubs, to advocate the nomination of the great military hero for the Presidency. The popularity of Grant was fairly earned during the rebellion, and the masses have been anxiously awaiting an opportunity to give expression to the high esteem in which they hold him.

JOHN ALBION ANDREW.

The telegraph yesterday announced the death, in Boston, of ex-Gov. JOHN A. ANDREW, which resulted from apoplexy. The deceased was born at Windsham, Maine, May 31st, 1818. In early years he developed rare talent as a writer and speaker, and when he had attained his twelfth year had so mastered the English language as to stand before a large audience and extemporaneously speak wisely and well, nearly an hour without interruption. The principles which he so zealously championed throughout his entire life were formed almost simultaneously with the dawn of reason, as from childhood up he was a friend to the friendless, an advocate of universal freedom, and a warm and persistent laborer in the cause of temperance. In 1833 he entered Bowdoin College, Maine, from which he graduated in 1837. During his college life he evinced no particular brightness outside of declamation, oratory and composition. His tastes were all in that direction, and as his years advanced he ripened into a brilliant orator and writer. After graduating he entered a law school at Cambridge, Mass., where he was honored with the degree of Doctor of Laws. Subsequently he established himself in Boston, where, up till 1860, he successfully practised his profession. He was closely identified with all the movements made by the Anti-Slavery party of his State and the country. In 1858 he was elected to the Legislature from Boston, and in 1860 took a prominent part in the Convention which put forth the lamented LINCOLN as the people's candidate for President. He was a member of the Committee appointed to formally notify Mr. LINCOLN of his nomination. On his return from Springfield, fresh from an interview with the great and good man whom the people had chosen to fill the highest office within their gift, Mr. ANDREW met a vast assemblage of his fellow-citizens of Boston, in Faneuil Hall, to narrate the incidents of his visit. The speech was extemporaneous, and on all sides was pronounced the best and most brilliant effort of his life. He was elected Governor of Massachusetts in 1860, by the largest popular vote ever cast for any candidate in that State. His course during the trying hours of rebellion was marked with unbounded patriotism, clear judgment and foresight, and high executive ability. He entered his office with full knowledge of the cloud of war about to burst upon the country and with prophetic shrewdness immediately organized the State militia, and after one week's notice from the Government had troops in large number moving towards the national capital. He was ever a warm friend of the soldier, and, like our worthy ex-Governor Curtin, was everywhere received by the rank and file of the army with evidences of gratitude and enthusiasm. He prepared the address issued by the loyal Governors in council assembled in September, 1862, at Altoona, Pa. He served five years as Governor of Massachusetts, after which he renewed the practise of his profession in Boston.

Gov. ANDREW was pleasant, courteous and agreeable in his manner, warm, generous and impulsive in his nature. His loss will be deeply felt throughout the entire country, especially in the State which delighted to honor his fidelity to principle and adherence to that which he believed right, honorable, just and patriotic.

POPULAR RESTIVENESS.

It is admitted, on all hands, that during the Rebellion the western and northwestern States evinced the noblest enthusiasm in support of the government. Most of them anticipated, under grand impulses of patriotism, the demands made upon them, for men and material, necessary to the prosecution of the war.

It cannot be concealed that the people of those States are becoming restive under the financial burdens resulting from the struggle for national existence. The first manifestation of this uneasiness was observed in connection with the impost duties. In order that the domestic production of manufactured goods might be made available for purposes of revenue the imposts on many corresponding articles of foreign fabrication were somewhat increased. Presently, a clamor was raised that manufactured goods were too high. It availed nothing to demonstrate that agricultural products were proportionately dearer, or that, if revenue was diminished on manufactures it might become needful to raise it from farm produce or from land itself. What was virtually required was virtually a condition of affairs in which agricultural productions would command twice or thrice the old rates, while manufactured commodities should be afforded at or near the former charges. This is a result that may be approximated by extraordinary causes, but cannot be reduced permanently by any combination of circumstances or influences whatever. In the long run products of various sorts must and will bear, in respective values, a definite proportion to each other.

Latterly, the same discontent has been disclosed in cavils at the payment of interest on the public debt. The demand has not, indeed, been ventured that the national indebtedness shall be repudiated, either in form or in substance; but it is urged that the bonds which constitute the security for the circulating notes of the national banks shall be paid in greenbacks and cancelled. It is urged plausibly enough, that legal tender notes would be as available for currency as the bills of the different banks, made secure by a deposit of government bonds; and that by this substitution the interest on the larger part of the public debt, if not the whole of it, would be saved to the people. Whether this feeling will take a more aggressive form can only be told by waited developments.

With the National Banking System, as a whole, we have never been enamored. It seemed to us at the beginning, that the capitalists caught the government in a great strait, and virtually exacted such conditions as suited their own convenience and welfare. In opposition to this view, we are aware they say they put all they had so absolutely in peril that if the government had not been sustained they would have been utterly ruined. Doubtless they were largely swayed by patriotic emotions and purposes, but to what extent each one must determine for himself by all the surrounding circumstances.

However this point may be decided, the Banking System is an established fact. It touches more or less directly almost all the men engaged actively in business, if not those who have places in the quieter walks of life. It is easy to say that greenbacks are just as available as the notes of banks, and cost a good deal less; but the process of substituting legal tenders for bank bills, especially in the existing unsettled and nervous condition of monetary affairs, might involve costly results which would make the change most undesirable. If in closing up the National Banks a general financial panic should ensue, more would be lost by citizens in twelve months than would be saved by avoiding the payment of interest by the Government for an indefinite period. In view of the situation, and independently of all considerations of honor or honesty towards bondholders, it appears to be an excellent time "rather to bear the ills we have than fly to others that we know not of."

This proposition to wipe out the National Banks has drawn from Mr. JAY COOKE a letter in favor of the existing order of things, which does more credit to his ability than to his fairness. For instance he undertakes to show that the Banks pay in taxes of various sorts about as much as the interest paid by the government upon the bonds hypothecated to secure their circulation. Of course, he finds it easy to ascertain and state what amount of revenue the general government derives from taxes upon banks; but when he proceeds to other taxes paid by banks he is careful to lump the whole instead of at empting details. The fact is that so far the banks have paid no, or few, taxes except such as are strictly national. In Pennsylvania, and perhaps, some other States, taxes have been imposed and will be soon collected, unless legal resistance shall be made; but these taxes do not approach, in the aggregate, anything the sum named by Mr. COOKE. It is barely possible that if the principle of taxing National Banks by State authority shall be maintained, his figures may prove to be a loose approximation to the reality.

FIFTEEN of the good Sisters of Charity who have been endangering their lives while nursing the sick at New Orleans, have gone to Memphis to continue their Christian labors. PREBLE COUNTY, Ohio, has a beast, a sort of nondescript, eight feet long, with a head and feet like a dog, but larger. Nobody has seen this monster except at a distance and after dark. The alarm has become so general that the schools have been temporarily suspended, and on Sunday last five hundred men and boys went out to hunt him up, but without success up to Sunday night.

WELLS, the man who so successfully broke into and robbed the Weathersfield bank, a few weeks since, has been arrested, and proves to be a graduate of the institution which he robbed. He will again be assigned quarters there, and we shall probably soon see if he is as expert at breaking out as he was at breaking into the castle.

GENERAL NEWS.

—An old chap in New York city has occupied the same orchestra seat at the "Black Crook" for over one hundred nights, and is still engaged in the cause.

—The "gibbet," says a French wit, "is a species of flattery to the human race. Three or four persons are hung, from time to time, for the sake of making the rest believe that they are virtuous."

—A Baltimore schooner, which left Aspinwall on the 4th of September, has been spoken, at anchor off Barabela quay, with two Indians and the captain on board, the latter not expected to live long, the other portion of the crew having died and been buried at sea.

—A young lawyer in Paris was boasting about his profound knowledge of French jurisprudence once at the Palais. "As to me," said he, "I always sit astride on the code." "Look out," replied a bystander; "there is always danger to sit astride on an animal one does not know well."

—In the Sandwich Islands they have an intoxicating liquor called awa, which is made from a root of that name, usually by females, who express the juice by mastication, spitting it into vessels, where it is allowed to ferment, when it becomes of fearful power, often producing insanity.

—The Government has ordered headboards to be put at the graves of the assassination conspirators who are buried in the Washington Arsenal Grounds, for the purpose of future identification. The request of their friends for the disinterment of the bodies in order to give them honorable burial, has been declined.

—The ringleaders concerned in the late demonstration of the ship carpenters' strike were arrested at Quebec on Monday. A mob of roughs, to the number of several hundred, attempted a rescue, but were driven off by the soldiers. Bail to any amount was offered for the release of the prisoners, but it was refused. The jail is guarded by a strong detachment of the Rifle Brigade.

—In the absence of an appropriation by Congress to pay for the newly acquired Territory of Alaska, it is understood that all preemptions in that quarter are in violation of law, and that the military authorities will probably be instructed to remove such settlers until the purchase shall have been finally consummated by the payment of the money, and until the Government shall have prescribed regulations for the same.

—The Portland Press tells the following story to illustrate the rejoicings over victories they might have won:

The Captain was a perfect marine philosopher, and no amount of ill luck ever dampened his faith or good spirits. Coming into the harbor one night with an empty ship, after a three years cruise, he was boarded by a townsman, who inquired: "Waal, Cap'n, how many bar'ls? Had a good voyage?" "No," responded the skipper, "I hain't got a bar'l or lie aboard; but," rubbing his horney hands with satisfaction, while his hard features relaxed into a smile—"I've had a mighty good sail."

—Advices from the plains give the substance of the peace treaties recently ratified between the Kiowa and the Comanche tribes, and the Indian Commissioners. These tribes are to be located on a large reservation between North Fork of the Red River, and the Red River proper, are to receive $25,000 annuity, to be furnished with agricultural seeds and implements; and granted certain privileges regarding hunting, etc. In consideration of these grants the Indians are to remain upon the reservation, and cease from disturbing white settlers in any manner. The Pacific railroads are also to be prosecuted to completion without further interference.

—A Paris letter writer tells this story of the French Minister, Achille Fould: "One day a magnificent turkey, stuffed with truffles, made its appearance at the Ministry of Finance, was speedily transferred to a spit at the private residence, and served to the minister. As the noble bird was being cut up, an enormous truffle, with a folded letter inserted in it, rolled out to the astonishment and concealed amusement of the beholders, and the highly scented missive was presented to M. Fould, who burst into a hearty laugh when he had made out its damaged contents. It was signed by an old officer, who long and in vain had solicited a place. Demand after demand had been delivered and committed to the waste paper basket; and at last the cunning Lieutenant had had recourse to this singular epistolary ruse, which succeeded to perfection, for a month afterwards he was appointed to the office he had so long wished for."

—Workmen excavating a cellar in Monroe county, Indiana, a few days ago, came upon an interesting memento of the "forgotten race." The workmen struck what at first appeared to be a solid ledge of rock, and sitting down to rest, one of their number began idly to pick at an apparent fissure, when a block of stone nearly two feet square disappeared with a dull thump. The men set eagerly to work, and removing the bottom of the pit disclosed a chamber with six feet ceiling, and eighteen by twenty-five feet within the walls, which are of solid, neatly seamed stone work. Ranged in rows, on rudely constructed platforms, were twelve skeletons, each with tomahawk and arrow heads at its side, earrings and bracelets of solid silver lying where they dropped, and piles of what appeared to have been furs, in the centre of the platform, each pile crumbling to dust as soon as exposed to the light. A number of tools, made of copper and hardened equal to the best cast steel, were also unearthed, and fresh discoveries are constantly being made.

FRESHER THAN THE MORNING ROSE.

—Can anything be fresher than a morning rose or parsley? Is there anything to it to color is a healthy, firm gum, and next to purity is a fine row of teeth with a fragrant breath. The sweetest breath off a grange will follow a faithful application of WARD'S GOLD AND PEARL DENTRIFICE.

ASTON EMERY—A gentleman whose profession brings him into daily contact with many clients of both sex, was not a little annoyed by the frequent inattention of his friends and clients to his offering hints. He was in great trouble for a time, fearing his means to warn them were not quite as delicate as could, when, one morning last week, the mystery was solved. A friend remarked to him that his breath was none of the sweetest, and advised him at once to get a bottle of Ward's Gold and Pearl Dentrifice. MALARIA EVERYWHERE.

For by has there been a case as fruitful as this of malarious disease. Not only on the shores and in the valleys of bowels immediately behind the old haunts of fever and ague and bilious remittent fever have these powerful diseases been unusually virulent, but they have often selected towns and cities never before infested with them. In fact, even accepting the anomalies and attacks of fever to be supposed to have been placed, by the laws of nature, above their reach. Hence we are compelled to admit that a fatal element pervades the universal air this season, and should at once resort to the only approved preventive of its consequences. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a tonic so potent, an invigorator so certain, an alterative so irresistible, and a stimulant so pure, that it enables the system to resist and annihilate the direst causes of disease. With the condition that one cyclone in incomprehensible germs a month move among us, no man living can show more signs of sentiment than this powerful defensive medicine. Whether a cyclone of fever ever scourged this or that section of the country or not, it is a well ascertained fact that all parts of the country are subject to the attacks of fever and ague, bilious remittent fever, and other diseases of a malarious character, and that the only safeguard against them is the use of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Sold by all druggists and dealers generally.

BLIND EYES RESTORED.

The case to which we alluded some weeks ago, of Christiana Fisher, of Beaver county, is now entirely confirmed by the appearance of Miss Fisher herself, who to-day called on DR. KEYSER in person, to thank him for his genius and skill in restoring her TO ENTIRE AND PERFECT SIGHT. Miss Fisher had been nearly blind for four months. She was so blind that she could not distinguish any object so as to make out what it was. The case is remarkable, as hundreds of cases like hers are doomed to never-ending darkness, on the flimsy pretext that there is no cure, and nothing can be done. She was under DOCTOR KEYSER'S care for two months, and before she applied to him through her brother, Simon P. Fisher, slight hopes were entertained of her ever getting her sight. Her case is well known in the neighborhood where she resides, and has been regarded as one of extraordinary recovery.

We, the undersigned, know of the cure of Miss Fisher, and bear willing testimony to the facts above stated.

TRIAL FOR LIBEL—IMPORTANT QUESTION RAISED.

John Stewart was placed on trial for libel, on complaint of his wife. The prosecutrix resides in Birmingham, and has been, owing to domestic trouble, living apart from her husband, doing business under the sanction of the Court as a feme sole trader.

The alleged libel consisted in the publication of a printed paper, headed "John Stewart's sworn statement," which purported to be a history of his wife and an account of his experience with her.

Wm. Reamer, a merchant on Wood street, testified that he had secured two or three copies of the paper from the defendant.

James Brawdy was acquainted with the defendant; had seen the publication, and being acquainted with the parties supposed several paragraphs to refer to Mrs. Stewart; defendant told witness that he intended to publish the paper, and that he (witness) would know what Mrs. Stewart was when he (defendant) gave him (witness) a copy.

Jacob H. Miller, Esq., had seen one of the papers posted on a telegraph pole, at the corner of Fifth and Smithfield streets.

John McKee testified that the defendant had given him a copy of the publication.

Mr. Hoerr, court interpreter, received a copy of the publication from the defendant, who said he had circulated the "document" through various townships.

Wm. Livingston, of Lawrenceville, brother of prosecutrix, testified that she was a widow in 1850, and that the name of her second husband was Mitchell. He had seen the publication and supposed it referred to his sister; several copies were thrown about his premises.

W. C. Moreland, Esq., testified that shortly after the appearance of the publication defendant met him in the rotunda of the Court House, and said the publication was false so far as he (witness) had been referred to, but it was true so far as Mrs. Stewart was concerned.

F. H. Collier, Esq., counsel for the prosecution, proposed to offer the entire publication in evidence. The paragraph mentioned in the indictment, as referring to Mrs Stewart, was admitted and read to the jury.

For the defense, Margaret White testified that she was present at the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart (defendant and prosecutrix) in 1850.

James Beck testified they had lived together until within the last two or three years.

R. S. Morrison, Esq., counsel for defense, claimed that the same law which excluded the wife from testifying against the husband would apply in this case and require the acquittal of the defendant.

Judge Stowe, in charging the jury, said the point raised was one of much importance. The principle of the common law seemed to indicate that a husband might libel his wife, and steal or burn her property, or do anything that did not affect her personal safety, and not be held answerable. His Honor very much doubted whether the prosecution could be sustained under an authority cited by defendant's counsel, viz: Rex vs. Marsh, Ryan & Moody's Reserved Crown Cases, 183. "Where upon an indictment against a woman for setting fire to the house of her husband, it appeared she had lived separate from him for two years and had gone by her maiden name, and it also appeared clearly from the evidence that she had set fire to the house out of malice to her husband, she having declared that she wished to burn him in the house: the judges held that she ought not to be convicted." But at the request of the counsel for the prosecution, His Honor said he would reserve the question, instructing the jury pro forma that in considering the case they should treat the prosecutrix as if she were not the wife of defendant, but as a third party and of no relation.

The jury after a brief absence returned a verdict of guilty. Mr. Morrison moved for an arrest of judgment.

[In stating the above case we have designated the wife as the prosecutrix. We should have stated that her daughter occupied that relation; but this circumstance does not alter the position of the question raised.]

SELLING TO MINORS.

Catharine Leonard, of Robinson township, was convicted on an indictment for selling liquor to minors, and sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars and the costs.

MAYOR'S POLICE ON TRIAL.

Thomas McPeet and John B. Searight, of the Mayor's police, were placed on trial on a charge of assault and battery, preferred by John Low. The first count in the indictment charged forcible entry and detainer; but this was not pressed. The assault and battery was alleged to have been committed on the night of the 11th of August last, the defendants, as policemen, going to the house of the prosecutor and arresting him, without, as claimed, proper authority. For the defense evidence was offered that there was disturbance in the neighborhood, occasioned by persons quarreling and his son quarreling, "watch" having been called. The facts of the case appeared to be that Mr. Low's son came home in the night, drunk, and began quarreling with his father, who got out of bed; the son knocking the father down, a daughter rushed out of the house and gave the alarm: the boy was arrested and taken to the lock-up; afterwards defendants returned to Low's house, called him out of bed, and said they wanted him to go to the Mayor's office and make an information against his son; Low declined to go, but said he would go in the morning; Searight, one of the defendants, said "I'll be d——d if you don't go!" they then took Low in custody and to the Mayor's office, or lock-up, where Searight made an information against him for "disorderly conduct," and he was detained in the tombs until morning.

Judge Stowe charged the jury that if the defendants went to the house of Low, after the arrest of his son, and arrested Low in the manner stated, without a warrant, the arrest was clearly illegal, and the defendants were guilty of assault and battery. The principle of law governing the case was 1 Archbold vol 1, p. 100, that "Constables may interfere to prevent an affray, in their presence, in the same manner as a private person, and it is more particularly their duty to do so. But after the affray is over, they cannot, any more than a private person, apprehend the affrayers without warrant. And the same as to all breaches of the peace or any other misdemeanor, committed out of view." His Honor said it was time the authorities, whose business it was to protect the public, understood their duty in these matters. If occurrences such as the one in hand were as frequent as they were alleged to be, the Court would censure, in imposing penalties, as far as possible to instruct officers as to their proper duties.

The jury found a verdict of guilty of assault and battery. Sentence deferred till to-morrow.

AGGRAVATED ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

Michael Hogle was indicted for assault and battery, on oath of George Vollmer, and the same defendant and Frank Hogle, for aggravated assault and battery, on oath of John S. Wentz. The cases, having arisen out of the same transaction, were tried together. The difficulty occurred in Oakland township, on the 23d of July last, at the "shooting gallery." Brown and Vollmer were partners in the ice business, and their errand at the place was to collect money, about which the trouble arose. The case was on trial at adjournment.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

—The Mercersburg Journal says that on Tuesday of last week, as Mr. Leonard Divilbliss, residing near that place, was engaged in hauling wood, he was caught by one of the wheels of the wagon, which passed over his leg between the knee and thigh, crushing it in a horrible manner, and it is feared rendering amputation necessary. The accident occurred on the road leading from Mercersburg to Clear Spring, and about seven miles from his residence.

—The Johnstown Democrat says: We are informed that on Sunday night week some miscreant stole a valuable mare of Mr. Shuster's, who resides in Cambria township, from the field, and shot the poor beast so as to permanently cripple it. It will be a great misfortune if the scoundrel who committed this dastardly deed long escapes the vengeance of the law.

—The Franklin Repository says: A painful and distressing accident occurred at Sylvan, in this county, to John Zimmerman, son of Mr. John Zimmerman, of that place, on Friday last, while engaged in shelling corn. The sheller became choaked and running his hand in to force the corn through, it was caught by the teeth of the sheller and lacerated in a horrible manner, and required the sheller to be taken apart in order to extricate the hand. Medical attendance being called, it was found necessary to amputate two of the fingers, and the physicians fear they may yet have to amputate the entire hand.

—We clip from the Johnstown Democrat: For several days the mountains surrounding the town have been on fire, presenting at night a beautiful appearance. The fences of some of the farmers have been burned, and much fencing had to be torn down to save it from the flames; but beyond this no damage was done. On Sunday night it commenced to rain, and as the rain is still coming down the fire is no doubt completely extinguished.

—We are informed that Ebensburg narrowly escaped destruction on Saturday last. A fire broke out in the afternoon in a stable, at the west end of town, which greatly endangered the foundry and several dwelling houses in the neighborhood. Three stables, with their contents, were entirely consumed. The use of the liquid from the vats of the tanyard of Mr. Evans also prevented a destructive conflagration, as the supply of water soon gave out. On the same afternoon the dwelling hause of Mr. Wm. Mills took fire from a flue, but a timely discovery saved the property. On Friday a part of the roof of the Ebensburg foundry, belonging to E. Glass, Esq., was burned.

—The Ebensburg Alleghenian contains the following obituary notice:

DIED—In this place, on Tuesday evening, 29th instant, Demetrius Augustine Conrad, aged about thirty-three years. The deceased was born in Allegheny township, Cambria county, and was well known, not only here, but throughout the entire western part of the State. He was a veritable dwarf in size. Though thirty-three years of age, he had attained the height of only forty inches, while his weight was fifty-seven pounds. His physical parts were exquisitely proportioned throughout. But, though a mere atom of humanity, he was no dwarf in intellect. He was well educated and well read, and could make a speech or write a letter. His friends, whose name is legion, for his social qualities were such as to endear him to everybody, will drop a tear to the memory of "Little X."

—From the Beaver Argus we learn the particulars of a melancholy affair which occurred in Chippewa township, on last Friday, and which resulted in the instant death of a young man of that locality. He was out hunting on that day, and on coming to a house, he forgotten whether his gun was loaded or unloaded. Placing his foot upon the hammer he pushed it back, and then applying his mouth to the muzzle of the barrel commenced blowing to see if it was loaded, and his foot slipping, the hammer came down, discharging the gun, and spreading the contents through his head. We did not learn the unfortunate young man's name, but incidentally heard that he was a nephew of Mr. Wm. Veon, of Chippewa township.

—An affray occurred at Uniontown, Fayette county, on Saturday night last, in which a young man named John Bunting, was stabbed and dangerously wounded by a man named John Hutchinson. It appears that an old grudge has existed between Bunting and Hutchinson, and on the night stated Hutchinson, while somewhat intoxicated, assaulted Bunting in front of the United States Hotel, in Uniontown, stabbing him in the abdomen with a large knife. The wounded man was picked up and carried into Dr. Ewing's office, where his injury was attended to. He was afterwards removed to his residence, where he is now lying. The wound is a dangerous one, and may probably prove fatal. Bunting and Hutchinson are both residents of Uniontown.

—From the Beaver Argus we cut the following: "A young man named Oscar Bradley, of Bridgewater, met with a painful accident on last Tuesday evening while attending Dan Rice's show, in Rochester. In passing rapidly from one place to another, he came in contact with a tight rope, which threw him to the ground, the fall breaking his leg between the ankle and knee. A physician was immediately called, who dressed the broken limb. At last accounts he was doing well.

—Lt. John W. Hicks, of Blair county, died at Natchez, Miss., of cholera, on the 22d inst. He was a Lieutenant in the regular army.

—A young man named Howe fell from the roof of a house in Gallitzin to the ground, a distance of forty-two feet, on Monday of last week, but was only slightly hurt.

—Surveys are making preparatory to extending the Franklin Railway from Hagerstown, Md., to Williamsport, on the Pennsylvania border, for the purpose of opening a direct coal trade from the latter to the former State.

—The Monongahela Republican says: On Monday Conell Swaney was seriously injured by the falling of slate in Robinson & Barnum's coal bank. His back was badly hurt, his collar bone broken, and his face and head badly cut.

—On Tuesday, says the Monongahela Republican, a child of John Sickles, aged three years, had two of its fingers cut off, all but the skin, by a little brother handling a fresh ground axe.

—The new county, Forest, has a tax claim against Venango county, that is resisted. The Forest county exchequer is low and county orders are below par.

—The new church edifice in course of erection, by the United Presbyterian denomination of Greenville, Pa., is already under roof.

—The new bridge over the Susquehanna at Harrisburg, Pa., is finished, and was opened to travel on Saturday, the 26th.

—Horace Greeley has accepted an invitation to deliver a lecture in Titusville, some time during the month of December.

—The public square in Mercer is being enclosed by a substantial and pretty fence.

—A new steam shingle factory has been erected in Springboro, Crawford county.

Gold opened at 140¾, advanced to 140¾ and closed at 140¾. The downward tendency was kept by war rumors and the probable interference of Prussia in the Italian question; otherwise, cash gold is quite plenty, and freely offered to loan at anything better than the currency value. The disbursements of gold on account of interest only amount to six millions, and parties who would not accept 142@144 a few days ago, would now be content with about 140.

Government bonds are moderately active and have advanced, except 1881s and 10-40s, which are lower; dealers in these securities are just as active as in the gold and stock exchange, and use cable dispatches and Washington special news to influence the price of bonds.

The stock market is lower and dull, and even cliques find it difficult with all their cheap borrowed money to sustain the market. The express stocks are all lower. Adams has declined 3 per cent., and Merchants's Union is now offered at 27½, against 30½ a few days ago. Mining shares are dull and lower. The local money market is not any easier than it was for the last three weeks, and some of the most desirable stocks cannot be taken up, though offered at low rates.

Financial affairs in London are demoralized, and are drifting towards a chronic panicky condition, owing to the enormous losses from the heavy decline in cotton and other produce, and the doubts entertained as to the ability of many first-class firms to sustain themselves. The paralysis of mercantile credit is apparent from the stagnation in the London money market, where money is begging for employment on call at 1 per cent. per annum, and 2 per cent. per annum on short bills. The London Times, of the 18th instant, says: "The stock exchange opened yesterday with symptoms almost of panic."

—The condition of the Western National banks, as showed by the abstracts compiled from their quarterly reports received at the office of the Comptroller of the Currency, is up to the required standard, and this is also the case in regard to National banks in all other sections of the country. The reserves specified by the act of Congress have been met in all cases.

—The Philadelphia Ledger, of Wednesday, says: We regret to learn that the extensive woolen house in this city, of Scoglin, Shebel & Co., who are also largely connected in the Camden Woolen Mill, suspended yesterday. Heavy outlays in connection with the factory, the great depression of the staple on which they were mainly engaged, an exceedingly dull market for months past, and the recent failure of Robt Taylor, at New York, are given among the causes of the calamity that has overtaken this spirited, enterprising and heretofore most successful houses. It is understood that every energy has been exerted to stave off this result, but, as it seems, without avail. We have not heard the nature or amount of the liabilities, but, from the universal sympathy expressed in this city, there is reason to hope that the difficulty may be but temporary. The stoppage of an enterprise like theirs, their peculiar manufactures standing at the very head of their kind in the country, partakes of a national loss.

—The Chicago Tribune, of Wednesday, says: The money market shows a tight pressure, and borrowers are persistent in presenting their claims for accommodation. The demand is mostly from trade circles, and are here in favor of a rise, but as the stocks are rapidly accumulating, there is a strong desire on the part of some of the trade to force shipments, with the view of giving some relief to the market. Shippers were indoors to purchase to-day on the promise that time bills, drawn against cargoes would be discounted, and in some quarters the offerings of that class of paper were quite liberal. First-class mercantile names pass at 19 per cent., to outside signatures are obliged to seek the street.

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, October 31, 1867.

CATTLE.

The market has again been very dull since the date of our last report, the 24th inst., and with a very fair supply and a diminished demand, the sales of cattle on that and the succeeding days, especially for commonish stock, has still further declined. Good fat cattle were scarce, and such as are usually taken for retailing in the eastern markets sold without much difficulty at 6¼ to 7, and extra, if there had been any in market, would doubtless have brought 7¼, or even 7½. The transactions, as will be seen by reference to sales, were restricted mainly to common cattle, for which prices ranged from 3½ to 6¼c, and some medium fat cattle were brought from 5¼ to 6. The impression seems to be gaining strength among those encaged in the business, that prices for all kinds of stock must go still lower, as the supply of cattle throughout the country is larger than was generally supposed, and besides, feed is scarce, and likely to be high, which will force a larger number on market than there would otherwise have been. We quote the following sales:

Glass, Lafferty & Co. sold 17 head to Maynes & Co. at 4½@5 to same at 3; 21 to Case at 4,60; 21 to Hedges & Taylor at 6¼; 17 to Easby at 5.85, 24 to Hoffstotter at 5.40 to same at 5.35, 7 oxen to Wright & Moore at 6¼; 20 to Myers & Co. at 6¼; is to same at 1000 for the lot; 18 to Dufford & Co. at 6¼@6½ per head; 22 to Myers at 4; 22 bulls to McArdle at 2¾.

Hedges & Taylor sold 40 head for Parker to Kinnen at 6¼; 3 for Johnston to Kennedy at 5¾; 15 for Mears to Henning & Spotts at 6¼; 22 for McCoy to Marks at 4¾; 19 for Keenan to Carr & Co. at 4¾; 19 for Monaghan to Mears at 6¼; 28 for Dougherty to Wright & Moore at 4½; 17 to McCorkle & Co. at 6; 92 for Ashbrook to Wright & Moore at 6¼; 19 for Smith to Rothschilds & Co. at 6.50; 16 for Pauline to Myers at 4½ to 5; 38 for Watts to Mendelle at 5; 4 for Dougherty to Maynes at 5.

Smith & Talmage sold for Reese to Torbert 66 head at 5.56; 28 for Williams to Coffman at 5¾; 2 for Tillett to Myers & Co. at 4; 4 for Reese to Keenan at 4½; 14 to same at 5.35; 50 to same at 5.40.

Lonestine to Funk 19 at 6.80; Carr to Henning & Spotts 19 at 6¼; Hazlewood & Co. to Thomas 38 at 5; Coulter to McClain 18 at 6¼; Hawk to Henning & Spotts 41 at 5¾; Bowman to Greenwald & Co. 33 at 5.90.

Greenwald & Kahn sold for Morris to P. Kleman 81 head stockers at 4½; Hazlewood & Co. sold 9 bullocks for Graham cattle at 4½; H. Myers & Mosier 16 at 5; Shamberg to Kleman 5 at 6¾; Wernz for W. Hedges to Voter 43 at 4½.

Browning to Marks & Trautman 10 oxen at 4½; McCormick to Kraus & Haas 18 pretty good cattle at 6.50; Kisler to Benston 22 at 4¾; Lindorff to Mosier 14 at 4¾; Hahn to Rothschilds 15 at 5.10; McCormick to Hazlewood & Co. 44 at 5.50; Wright to Loenstone 14 head at 5.

Friend to Miller is head of prime cattle, weighing 20,250, at 7; Kibler to Maple & Trautman 10 bulls at 2.65; Myers to Motter 46 very common at 4; Wickersham to Myers 20 head at 4.75.

Morris to Maynes & Co. 43 head at 5.70; Hedges & Taylor for Durham to Todd 17 head at 6.15.

HOGS.

The wet weather, together with the very unfavoral advices from New York, had a very depressing effect on the Hog market this week, and to-day buyers were asking for still further concessions. New York Hogs may be quoted at 6¾ to 6¾, and Philadelphia Hogs at 6¾@7¼, gross, and these may be regarded as the extremes of the market—showing a decline of from ¼ to ¾ a cent per pound, compared with last week. As yet, none of our packers have been in the market, and unless Hogs rule lower than they did last fall, it is not likely that the packing business will amount to very much in this place, as our provision dealers are inclined to buying their supplies in the West.

Gilchrist & Co. bought 92 head from Glass & Lafferty at 7.06; 151 from Graham at 6,90; 6 from Voter at 7; 99 from Naldin at 7; 19 from Coulter at 7; 95 from Taylor & Tomer at 4¾; 35 from Voter at 7¼; 82 from J. Lafferty at 7; 56 from Voter at 7; 95, 44 from Bial at 7¼; 90 from Barrett at 7¼; 95 from Baird at 7; 56 from Early at 7 25; 96 from Lamb at 7; 45 from Friend at 7; 75 from Graff at 7.35, 76 from Campbell at 7; 22 from Pollock at 7; 50 from McClain at 7.

Halligan & Co. bought 48 head from Mairs at 6,70; 107 from Stewart at 6,90; 52 from Early; 19 from Thayer at 6¾; 119 from Johnston at 6.35; 111 from Holser at 6,40; 23 from Reese at 6.90; 54 from Dunlap at 6¾; 118 from Morgan at 6,45; 102 from Keenan at 6,80; 192 from same at 6,90.

SHEEP.

The market for Sheep has been remarkably quiet during the past week, the transactions in the aggregate being unusually light. Prices, however, in consequence of diminished arrivals, were, if anything, a shade firmer, though not quotably higher; indeed, had it not been for the material falling off in the arrivals, there would doubtless have been a decline, as the eastern markets were anything but good. We quote at $2,50@4 per cwt, for common to prime fat mutton sheep—extra might have brought 4¾ or 4¾.

Glass, Lafferty & Co. sold 25 head to Barclay at 3,40; 25 to Pancoast at 3,40; and 99 to Myers & Auli at 3.

Deitrich bought 96 head Sheep and Lambs from Andrews at 3,90; 199 from Hedges & Taylor, averaging 90 lbs. at $3,60 per head; and 194 from Collins, averaging about 84, at $2,92 per head.

Rose sold 90 head sheep to Rawl, averaging 87, at 3¾.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, October 31, 1867.

The general markets present but little that is new or worthy of special mention. The weather being inclement had a tendency to retard out-door operations to-day, which at best, have been somewhat restricted for several days past; but with an early resumption of navigation, and the indications are again favorable, business in all its various departments, will no doubt improve. In values, there are no changes of any importance.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and unchanged; sales of 400 bush No. 1 Spring at $2,20. Prime Red Winter may be quoted at $2,50 in first hands, and $2,55@2,60 in store. Oats quiet and unchanged at 65@66c on track, and 68@70c in store. Corn is in good supply and very dull. Barley is steady and in fair demand, with regular sales of Spring at $1,30 in first, and $1,35 second hands. Rye is firm at $1,48@1,50.

FLOUR—There is a fair local demand for Flour, but the market nevertheless, is a little weak with a drooping tendency. We continue to quote at $10,50@11 for Spring Wheat, $12,50@13 for Winter Wheat; and $14@15,50 for fancy brands. Rye Flour, $8,50@9.

PROVISIONS — Bacon is dull, and as the season is nearly over, the transactions are a light, and of an unimportant character. Stocks, however, are pretty well reduced, and the old stock will doubtless be pretty well cleared out before the new comes in. Lard is quoted at 14c, and Mess Pork at $23@23,50.

BUTTER—Is dull, with a supply fully up to the demand, and prime Roll cannot fairly be quoted above 35c. Common packed is in good supply and dull.

EGGS—Quiet and unchanged—the arrivals are more liberal. We continue to quote at 27@28c.

CHEESE—Is steady and unchanged; sales at 16@18c for Hamburg, and 18@19c for Goshen.

APPLES—There is no falling off in the arrivals, and with a supply largely in excess of the demand, the market is very dull, though prices are unchanged at $2,50@3,50 for good to prime.

POTATOES—Peach Blows are in good supply and dull but unchanged at $1 per bushel. New Jersey Sweets quoted at $4,00@4,50 per barrel.

CRANBERRIES—Steady, with regular sales at $10 for Common, and $13@14 for cultivated.

OIL—Lard Oil is quiet but steady at 95c for No. 2, and $1,15 for No. 1.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, October 31, 1867.

CRUDE—The market for Crude was again dull and unsettled, and with a more favorable prospect for an early resumption of navigation, holders are quite anxious to realize, and prices ruled a shade lower. We can report sales of 800 bbls, spot, at 12½c; and there was a rumored sale of 3000 bbls to be delivered on first water, at 10c. Spot oil is generally held at 13c, with buyers at 12¼ to 12½c, and we are cognizant of offers to buy first water at 10c, and offers to sell at 10½ to 11c. The indications for an early bulk rise were more favorable to-day than yesterday, although, as yet, there is no certainty about it. According to private telegrams there was but little rain at Oil City to-day, but it was cloudy and soft—Oil was quoted nominally at 13 to per bbl, at that point.

REFINED—The market was again very quiet and unsettled to-day, in sympathy with crude. Last night and this morning there were sales of 5000 bbls spot oil in Philadelphia at 30½; since then, the market has improved somewhat, as the latest dispatches quoted the market firm at 31c for spot oil. November is quoted at 32c, while for December, there seems to be no inquiry, and, as a consequence, there is nothing doing for that particular month. Indeed, there is but little effort being made to effect sales, as the majority of operators are busily engaged in settling up their old contracts, so as to be ready to take a fresh start with the incoming month.

Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, October 31.—Dry Goods market generally dull, yet a few large dealers are doing a very fair business at steady rates, if we except certain styles of fine Brown Sheetings, which are lower; such as Great Falls J and Nashua D are now selling at 31½c. Standard Sheetings and Brown Drills are in better request for export recently, and, with reduced stocks, it would seem prices have reached the lowest and are running at a loss. Delaines are actually selling at a loss of 3c per yard here, and yet in parts of the West they are selling much lower. This will bring the mills to a stand and enhance prices.
